The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock. The Portland boys will arrive in this city tonight and Saturday night after the game they will be tendered a reception at the Young Men's Christian Association building by the young ladies of the High school. The officials at the game Saturday will be A. P. Fairfield, of Bowdoin, umpire, L. P. Ward, of Bowdoin, referee, Russell, of Bowdoin, and Robinson of the Maine State College, linesmen. A report has been circulated that Gus Conners and Gllman would not play but it has no fonndation.

The coachers of the Yale eleven recently held a consultation and discussed means of strengthening the eleven. It is no secret to Yale that the team went to Brown to roll up a big score against the Providence boys, and the fact that their best efforts were ineffect-

Here is a loss of $1,000,000 gold by the treasury in the very heart, of the season when Secretary Carlisia calculated upon making a considerable addition to the reserve, in preparation for the winter export drain. The Secretary has been badly disappointed in all his expectations. He thought that the shipents of cotton and grain would turn the exchange rates heavily in our favor and bring us a large inflow of gold from rope. Nothing of the sort has taken place, and now the tide is setting the other way. He thought that the treasury would receive large sums of gold through deposits in exchange for small notes and sliver to facilitate the movement of the crops. But, as is shown by the comparison presented above, the domestic withdrawais of gold have practically balanced the deposits. Again, Secretary Carlisle thought that the managers of of the late bond syndicate would return the $3,000,000 gold certificates which he permitted them to takeout, and secept greenbacks in their place. but as yet Mr. Morgan has given no sign of any intention to do so. Finally, to close the list of official disappointments, the treasury has not even been able to attract to its vanits the $5,000,000 gold produced in the United States Juring the siz weeks covered by our com-

By s system of whofefale dropping from toe rolls and a wholesale rejection of claims, and the cutting down of pen-sions already allowed—in many cases cutting off $3 from a pension of $6 a month—$25,000,000 was "saved." It will not soon be forgotten how the courts were it voked by those able to do so, and the voice of the people in Congress was exerted to stop that cruel warfare on the veterans and their widows and orphans. But the cessation was only temporary. It has been going on as usual only with more care not to excite public !celing probably bucause Congress equired thirty days' notice before drop-

The Times correspondent dwells upon the utter disorganization of the government and the corruption of officials.

The Sultan, he says, is trying to coax a Gen. Miles declaration that Englanotwithstanding her great may, wonle says that if the report that French and American missionaries have been injured be confirmed there is every reason to believe that France and the United States will no longer confine themselves to remonstrances.

The correspondent also says that the officials at the palace are much distribed by Lord Salisbury's declarations and fear that a European conference may be summoned. that a European conference may be summoned.

The Sultan and his entourage have been for two days in a state of panic. The condition of affairs in the palace is indescribable. Everybody believes the rend is near, but nobody ventures to prophesy how it will be effected.

A despatch from Vienna says that negotiations are passing between the nowers with the object of forming an agreement that no single power shall undertake anything in the east indefendently of the others and that all steps shall be taken jointly after the previous agreement.
